Fresh 48

30 minute session at the hospital or at home when your little one arrives and is under 48 hours old. This is a life style session, therefore I'm photographing you're wee one as they are, snuggled into your arms, wrapped up in their crib, capturing all the little details. When you're still in the haze of your fourth trimester, being able to look back and remembering this special time is well worth it.

£250.00

All files are included along with a print license.

Birth Photography

Photographing you're transition into motherhood is an amazing experience and one I am truly blessed to be apart of. It's an incredible way to follow your own journey as most of the labour you forget especially when your special package arrives. If you would like to chat further about this then please get in touch.

All files are included along with a print license.
